

See you soon!

TRIO SOLISTI

Sunday, April 3, 2011, 3 PM

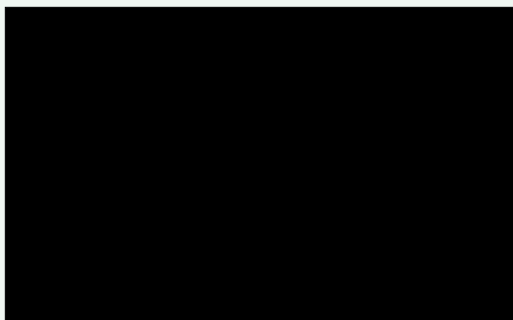

“The most exciting piano trio in America” (The New Yorker) playing works by Dvorak, Piazzola, Mendelssohn, and Defalla

A FAR CRY

Saturday, May 7,
2011 at 8:00 p.m.

NEW MEMBER BONUS CONCERT
details over

The young, leaderless small orchestra with big ideas, a diverse repertoire, and “a lush, sweet sound” (Strings magazine)

Announcing our 2011/2012 season

Our Music Committee has come up with a crackerjack lineup for the coming 2011/2012 season.

Subscriptions for adults will remain $40 for all four concerts, making the Danbury Concert Association once again the area's best value for top-calibre, live classical music. Western Connecticut State University students and others 18 and under will be admitted free of charge again this season through a grant from the Danbury Cultural Commission.

Those who subscribe by June 30 can take advantage of our bonus offers. Keep an eye open for our renewal mailing, which should come your way in a few weeks. And be sure to tell your friends about the Concert Association—new members are always welcome!

JOEL FAN, PIANIST

Sunday, September 18, 2011, 3 p.m.

“Absolutely dazzling...a romantic show stopper that sent the audience home awed and fulfilled.”

THE LARK QUARTET

WITH PIANIST GARY GRAFFMAN

Saturday, November 12, 2011, 8 p.m.

“Dynamic, accomplished, and imaginative musicians”

THE SCHUMANN TRIO

Clarinet, viola, piano

Saturday, March 31, 2012, 8 p.m.

“Beautiful sounds, restrained passion, and natural expressiveness”

THE INTERNATIONAL CHAMBER SOLOISTS

WITH DMITRI BERLINSKY, VIOLIN

Saturday, May 19, 2012, 8 p.m.

“...glorious sound, talented ensembles...polished string players...an inspired concert!”

Thank you for helping us support area food pantries

We'll be holding pre-concert food drives again this spring to help support area residents in need. Please bring any nonperishable food or health and beauty items you care to donate to the Ives Hall lobby prior to curtain time. Your help is greatly appreciated.

AT OUR NEXT SEASON, AND MORE

INSIDE: A SNEAK PEEK

Beautiful music...where you live

Join us at our Annual Dinner April 5

Danbury Concert Association members and guests are invited to our annual meeting and dinner, Tuesday, April 5, 2011, at 6:30 p.m. at Two Steps Restaurant (Ives St., Danbury).

Dinner includes crudités, a non-alcoholic beverage, entree (choice of filet mignon, lemon chicken, salmon, or vegetarian pasta), dessert, and gratuity. The cost is $30 per person. To reserve and make your menu selections, please call Helen Duncan at 203.748.8406 by March 31.

Rave reviews for our fall 2010 concerts and DCA “alumni”

The Danbury News-Times wrote that “with unusually diverse selections covering compositions from several continents, young Spanish pianist Alex Alguacil demonstrated his depth in a delicately nuanced performance” (Sept. 26, 2010), and that pianist Leon Bates and the Borealis Wind Quintet “combined for lush orchestra effect” (Oct. 24, 2010).

Two DCA “alumni pianists” were mentioned in The New York Times recently. Xiayin Wang, who performed with the Fine Arts Quartet at Alice Tully Hall, was described as “an energetic young pianist with several fine recordings to her credit” and “the excellent pianist Frederic Chiu” was praised after a concert at the Metropolitan Museum.

Saturday, May 7 is our New Subscriber Bonus Concert

Tell your friends: new subscribers to next season’s series can attend the May 7 concert (featuring the small orchestra A Far Cry) for free!

Current members: renew by June 30 to get a free bonus ticket

Renew your membership by June 30 and you’ll receive a complimentary ticket for one of next season’s performances.

Thank you

We are grateful again this season to our subscribers and many angels; the Danbury Cultural Commission, for making free admission for students possible; and to Western Connecticut State University, for hosting our series and purchasing a wonderful new Steinway concert grand piano.

Volunteers needed!

As an all-volunteer organization, we rely solely on members who assist in various ways. If you’re interested in joining our board of directors or helping in some other way, give us a call to learn more (203.748.0522).